

PRESS RELEASE

It is with great pleasure that the Acropolis Museum welcomes back its visitors on Friday 14 May 2021. Temporarily, the Museum will be open every day from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. The extended opening hours will be announced during May. Visitors can acquire their admission tickets from the Ticket Desk.

The excavation will be open during Museum opening hours and the archaeologists will be available to answer to the visitors' questions.

The restaurant on the second floor and the gift shop on the ground floor will be open during Museum opening hours.

For security reasons, the Museum will operate with a controlled number of visitors, observing all health protection measures (use of protective mask, distance of 2 meters, contactless temperature screening and hand sanitizer dispensers).

More information about the health protection measures and the Museum services/facilities is available on www.theacropolismuseum.gr.
