

FESTIVE SEASON GIFTS AT THE ACROPOLIS MUSEUM

LUCKY CHARM 2022 POMEGRANATE

Gold-plated brass necklace depicting pomegranate, ideal for a New Year's gift to your loved ones or to accompany your festive wishes with it. The pomegranate's numerous seeds have made it a symbol of fertility, abundance, prosperity and good luck. Available at the Acropolis Museum Shops.

Price: 32.00€ | Designer: Kostas Dimopoulos

ORNAMENT DOVE

This ornament is inspired by the dove held as an offering to the goddess Athena by the "Lyon Kore" (Acr. 269). This Kore takes her name from the fact that the original of her upper body is located in Lyon, France. It dates back to around 540 BC. and is located to the Archaic Acropolis Gallery.

Price: 25.00€ | Designer: Treis Grammes

ORNAMENT QUINCE

This ornament is inspired by the quince that Kore Acr. 680 holds in her outstretched hand. The ancients considered the quince to belong to the apple family and, because of its many seeds, a symbol of fertility. The "Kore with a quince" dates back to around 530-520 BC and is located to the Archaic Acropolis Gallery.

Price: 25.00€ | Designer: Treis Grammes

ORNAMENT APPLE

This decorative item is inspired by the apple that Kore Acr. 677 holds in her hand as an offering to the goddess Athena. The apple was a fruit associated with love, marriage and fertility. The "Kore with an apple" dates back to around 570-560 and is located to the Archaic Acropolis Gallery.

Price: 25.00€ | Designer: Treis Grammes

ORNAMENT BELLS

These ceramic bells have been decorated with designs inspired by those seen on the painted clay sprindle whorls (weaving weights) that brides-to-be dedicated to the Sanctuary of Nymphe on the slopes of the Acropolis. You can see the originals in Showcase 6 (no. 128) of the Gallery of the Acropolis Slopes.

Price: 19.00€ | Designs: Dots, Lines, Leaves | Designer: Attiko Fos

ORNAMENT POMEGRANATES

The decoration of these ceramic pomegranates is inspired by the painted designs on the clay sprindle whorls (weaving weights) that brides-to-be dedicated to the Sanctuary of Nymphe on the slopes of the Acropolis. You can see the originals in Showcase 6 (no. 128) of the Gallery of the Acropolis Slopes.

Price: 20.00€ | Designs: Chess, Leaves | Designer: Attiko Fos