

Lecture at the Acropolis Museum

Royal Ontario Museum (ROM)

On Wednesday 29 June 2022, at 7 p.m., the Acropolis Museum will present a lecture by Mr. Josh Basseches, Director & CEO of the Royal Ontario Museum (ROM), titled “ROM Immortal: Transforming Museum Experiences for the 21st Century” in the Museum auditorium. The lecture will be held in English with simultaneous translation in Greek. Entrance to the lecture is free and open to all.

The Royal Ontario Museum in Toronto is among the top 10 cultural institutions in North America. Canada’s largest and most comprehensive museum is home to a world-class collection of 13 million art objects and natural history specimens. As Canada’s preeminent field research institute and international leader in new and original findings, ROM plays a vital role in advancing our understanding of the artistic, cultural and natural world.