

Gastronomy and music events in May at the Acropolis Museum

The Acropolis Museum participates again in this year's Athens City Festival and offer two gastronomy and music events, on Thursday 4 May and on Monday 22 May 2023, in collaboration with the Athens Development & Destination Management Agency.

Ancient diet and wine tasting

Wine, the gift of Dionysus! What was the relationship of the ancient Athenians with wine? How did they drink it and what did they accompany it with? But more generally, what did their diet include? Which products were local and which were imported? And what role did they play in the religious life of the city? These and many other questions are answered by the archaeologists of the Acropolis Museum in an out of the ordinary tour of its collections. A unique experience that is completed in the restaurant on the second floor with views of the Acropolis, with a meal prepared especially for the occasion accompanied by wine tasting with the support of the Gerovassiliou Winery.

Date & time: Thursday 4 May 2023, tour on ancient diet (7pm-8pm), tasting at the restaurant (8pm-10pm)

Reservations: <https://www.viva.gr/tickets/museums/arxaia-diatrofi-kai-geusignosia-krasiou-athens-city-festival-en/>,
<https://cityfestival.thisisathens.org/>

Jazz concert with night views of the Acropolis

Mammal Hands, one of the iconic bands of the new generation of British jazz and minimal music, will present a unique concert on the terrace of the Museum's restaurant with night views of the Acropolis. Over the course of ten years and five impressive records, the Norwich trio has mixed influences from various genres of contemporary music, including post-rock, ambient and electronica.

Date & time: Monday 22 May 2023, 8:30pm

Reservations: <https://www.viva.gr/tickets/music/mammalhands/>,
<https://cityfestival.thisisathens.org/>