

The Acropolis Museum celebrates 9th birthday

On Wednesday 20 June 2018, the Acropolis Museum celebrates opening anniversary and nine years of operation. The exhibition areas and the restaurant will be open until midnight and entry will be free from 8pm onwards.

On the same day, visitors will have the opportunity to walk through the temporary exhibition "Eleusis. The great mysteries" together with an archaeologist - host. During the gallery talks, they will discover the most important artifacts brought to light by the archaeological excavation in Eleusis, as well as the connection of Eleusis, Athens and the Acropolis.

Greek: 10 am, 12 noon, 2 pm, 4 pm, 6 pm

English: 12:30 pm, 17:30 pm

Participation: For registration, please refer to the Information Desk at the Museum entrance on Wednesday 20 June 2018. Limited number of visitors per session. First-in first-served. The gallery talks are free of charge. Only the admission fee to the temporary exhibition is required (3 euros).

At 9pm, the City of Athens Big Band will perform favorite jazz songs in the Museum's entrance courtyard.
