

Musical evening with Hungarian melodies

On the occasion of the Hungarian Presidency in the Visegrad Group (2013–2014) and the National Day of Hungary, the Acropolis Museum presents on the second floor balcony the duet Edan Duo on Friday 25 October 2013, at 7 p.m., with an original program dedicated to renowned Hungarian and international music composers. Famous classical works by Ferencz Liszt and Jenő Hubay will be presented, as well as contemporary Hungarian music by György Kurtág. The program also includes widely-known melodies from the Hungarian dances of Johannes Brahms and the Hungarian Rhapsody No 2 by Ferencz Liszt.

The Edan Duo comprises of two outstanding soloists, the violinist Édua Zádory and the pianist Anastasiia Dombrovskaja. Édua and Anastasiia (hence their name Edan Duo) formed a duo with passion, personality and an astonishing homogeneity, where the boisterous and confident interpretation of Zádory is in perfect artistic harmony with the fiery and impetuous playing of Dombrovskaja.

The two musicians have already adapted an international approach and are well-respected abroad: Édua Zádory has had a 10-year-long international experience as a soloist and chamber musician, whereas Anastasiia Dombrovskaja has been a soloist with the most important orchestras of Europe on tour.

This musical event is held with the kind support of the Hungarian Embassy in Athens.

Like every Friday, on Friday 25 October the Museum will remain open until 10 p.m. and the restaurant until 12 midnight with a special menu based on classical and traditional recipes, giving particular emphasis on local products from regional Greece.

