

Rare Greek beers at the Acropolis Museum cafe

While wine has been on the rise for many decades in Greece, small-scale local beer production has been introduced only in the last two decades. Today, small-scale brewers thrive in many parts of the country. The Acropolis Museum decided to give its visitors the opportunity to enjoy quality beers from small-scale Greek producers at the ground floor café from Monday 8 April to Sunday 14 April. The ground floor café will serve its daily menu as usual.
